International evidence on the importance of education policy. In the K-12 education market, where countries the world over publicly finance and manage the great majority of their schools, the institutions and policies established by various levels of government must create incentives for school personnel to use their resources in ways that maximize performance.

Why Students in Some Countries Do Better - Education Next

1. Introduction. Education is a long-term endeavor directed at distal outcomes. The career-oriented utility of a college education is a primary reason students choose to attend college and select a specific major (Bui, 2002, Montmarquette et al., 2002). Despite this long-term nature of post-secondary education, there has been little research in educational psychology examining how students ...
